erincox is a multidisciplinary artist/curator. With an underlying sense of quirk and fun erincox creates assemblages to form vibrant and often provocative pieces that explore feminism and its intersection with capitalism.

Founding member of the Lucy Goosey Feminist Art Collective. Formed in 2019 the Lucy Goosey Feminist Art Collective is a group of gender-diverse artists located in Melbourne/Naarm, who create from within a feminist context. Presenting artworks that reflect on the female body in all guises, apathy, capitalism and consumerism, the modern mentality towards waste, and the patriarchal systems that dominate our world.
